

April 20, 2021

UPDATE TO ALL FAMILY AND FRIENDS

Hello, there are no additional positive cases. Everything remains status quo as per the update yesterday.

As per a Directive from the Chief Medical Officer of Health, LTC homes are no longer required to do temperature checks at entry and exit for staff or designated caregivers. Resident temperature checks will continue however as part of the surveillance for symptoms of any respiratory illness.

Be well and stay safe,

Janet Morris
President and CEO